Learning activities - First term 2020-21

First-term courses will start on September 2020. Full timetable is available here.

Teaching of first-year and second-year course will benefit of both e-learning methods and in-class activities, as specified in the following tables at the bottom of this document.

All in-class lectures will be live-streamed, recorded and made available on Ariel for all students, together with every other relevant academic material.

Please check for regular updates and information on this website, as well on specific Ariel websites of relevant courses.

In occasion of their first lesson in September, students of first and second year will be welcomed with a first hour session providing them with further details about the Master's program and the organization of all its didactic activities.
